GILBERT GARCIA GROUP

Entrepreneurship is at the heart of the story behind the Gilbert Garcia Group, a women and minority-owned and operated ALFN attorney member in Florida.

It's also the impetus behind the firm's expansion and its focus on community. Often representing the firm publicly is principal and Managing Partner Michelle Gilbert (pictured center), a woman who invests as much in her industry as she does in her own firm.

Gilbert Garcia Group maintains memberships and a high level of involvement in many major industry associations, often with leadership roles and substantial volunteer work on behalf of the industry.

As a collaborative leader, Gilbert works with practitioners from across the country, competition down the street, her lawmakers and regulators on Capitol Hill, and both the consumers and clients on each side of the legal issues she weighs everyday.

Gilbert's partners, Jennifer Lima-Smith, Managing Litigation/Risk Management Attorney, (far left) and Laura Layne Walker, Managing First Legal Attorney, (right) manage key parts of the firm's business.
